To Cadwallader Colden.

[Written from?] Sends him some plum, apricot, and peach stones which he hopes will grow. Has not had much success with the Spanish chestnuts, nor with the French walnuts. Hopes to be at Catskill the next year and will inform him of the route. Comments on the possibilities of the Philosophical Society and hopes that more people will become interested. Classes humanity generally as concerned with making money, spending it, or with laboring to earn enough to keep from perishing. Is obliged for the little book which he sent. Once had great faith in tar water but has seen how ineffective it is in the small pox c[illegible]. Finds the Bishop's works too abstruse. Suffered fro[illegible]njury from the kick of his horse and took nothing but t[illegible]il of turpentine until he was cured of the pain. A.L.S. 3p. 12 x 7 1/4 in.

Pownall, Thomas, 1722-1805, Governor of Massachusetts.

To George Montagu Dunk, second Earl of Halifax, 1716-1771.

[~~Written from~~ Boston ?] Gives his opinion of affairs in America and points out the necessity of keeping an army at the Gates of Canada--Lord Loudoun in Albany can do nothing to assist Nova Scotia. Since naval force not sufficient to support two fleets, and neither regular troops from Europe nor militia practicable, we must take Quebec. Hopes his position will be continued when the Establishment for America is voted on next year. Will write soon about "the villanously false paper that has been published against me in England."

Believes the number of his negro communicants to be increasing; will appreciate the books he is sending to them. Expects to hear soon of the surrender of Louisberg.
